

ANCIENT STUDIES
Hebrew Track

Minimum courses required: 10 (for students who enter with knowledge of Hebrew)

Students are required to study at least two semesters in one ancient language (Greek, Hebrew, Latin) at the intermediate level and to be able to apply that language in a required two-semester independent research project. Students should complete this language requirement by the end of the junior year. In preparation for this independent research project, each track requires students to take six courses relevant to the ancient world, choosing courses from those offered in the departments of Art, Classics, Philosophy and Religion.

Course requirement	Semester Taken
1. REL 109: Introduction to the Hebrew Bible	_____
2. REL 209: Hebrew Bible Studies	_____
TWO courses in the Classics at or above the 200-level:
3. _____	_____
4. _____	_____
TWO courses minimum at the 300-level:
5. _____	_____
6. _____	_____
TWO additional approved elective courses (see below):
7. _____	_____
8. _____	_____
TWO semesters senior Independent Research Project:
9. _____	_____
10. _____	_____

Approved Elective Courses:

- Art ARTH 273: Greek Art and Architecture
 ARTH 274: Roman Art and Architecture

- Classics Any course in the Classics department at or above the 200-level.

- Philosophy PHIL 203: Ancient Philosophy

- Religion REL 109: Introduction to the Hebrew Bible
 REL 110: Literature of the New Testament
 REL 204: Scripture in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam
 REL 209: Hebrew Bible Studies
 REL 210: Jesus and the Gospels
 REL 310: New Testament: Acts and Letters
 REL 316: Islam: Faith and Practice
 REL 322: Judaism: Faith and Practice