2000-2001 SUMMARY

Under the leadership of first-year head coach Rebecca Begley, the 2000 Wheaton College field hockey team showed great signs of promise and improvement, while remaining competitive against ranked opponents in the New England Region.

More than anything this year, the 18-member squad had tremendous work ethic. "These players worked harder than any other team I've coached," comments Begley. "With 16 of 18 players returning, Wheaton will be looking for a stronger start next season as we compete for the conference championship."

The outlook is bright for the Lyons, as the majority of the team will look to bounce back from its disappointing 3-13 season and ninth place finish in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). With the league only accepting the top eight teams for tournament play, the Lyons were not represented in postseason competition.

Despite its final mark, Wheaton either led or was even with eleven of the Lyons' sixteen opponents. With the advantage at the intermission, the Wheaton women ended up splitting the end result at 2-2. While tying seven teams, the Lyons' misfortunes continued as they finished the contests winning one of the seven, which included four 2-1 overtime losses.

After starting the season with three consecutive non-conference defeats, Wheaton responded at home by winning its next two against UMass-Dartmouth and Bridgewater State on Clark Field. Then the Lyons experienced a streak where they dropped the next seven games, including five one-goal losses and three overtime outings. Returning home for two straight league contests, Wheaton knocked off Smith College and then took eventual conference tournament finalist Wellesley College into the extra session before falling 2-1. The Lyons completed their regular season with road losses at Clark and NCAA Division III Championship runner-up Springfield College.

Performing on the offensive end for the blue and white was all-conference selection, Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/ Poly Prep), who led the team in scoring with six goals and a pair of assists for 14 points. Following close behind was a trio of attackers in juniors Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.) and Rebecca Pisano (Vinyard Haven, MA/Martha's Vineyard Regional H.S.) and captain Leah Ferullo (Boston, MA/The Winsor School), who paced the team in scoring last season. Collins and Pisano each contributed with four goals and three assists for 11 points, while Ferullo added three goals and a team-high four assists for 10 points.

Junior defensive back Andrea Pelkey (Palmyra, ME/Nokomis Regional H.S.), last year's most improved player, helped to prevent double-digit scoring with an impressive 10 defensive saves on the season. Stepping into a starting net position for all 16 games and having an immediate presence was freshman goalkeeper Gillian Lay (Brewster, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.), who held Wheaton's opponents scoreless for a stretch of 200 consecutive minutes. Ranked nationally with 144 total saves and a 0.862 save percentage, Lay played an integral role in keeping the Lyons in the majority of their contests.

2000 FIELD HOCKEY POST-SEASON SUMMARY

November 13, 2000

Under the leadership of first-year head coach Rebecca Begley, the 2000 Wheaton College field hockey team showed great signs of promise and improvement, while remaining competitive against ranked opponents in the New England Region.

More than anything this year, the 18-member squad had tremendous work ethic. "These players worked harder than any other team I've coached," comments Begley. "With 16 of 18 players returning, Wheaton will be looking for a stronger start next season as we compete for the conference championship."

The outlook is bright for the Lyons, as the majority of the team will look to bounce back from its disappointing 3-13 season and ninth place finish in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). With the league only accepting the top eight teams for tournament play, the Lyons were not represented in postseason competition.

Despite its final mark, Wheaton either led or was even with eleven of the Lyons' sixteen opponents. With the advantage at the intermission, the Wheaton women ended up splitting the end result at 2-2. While tying seven teams, the Lyons' misfortunes continued as they finished the contests winning one of the seven, which included four 2-1 overtime losses.

After starting the season with three consecutive non-conference defeats, Wheaton responded at home by winning its next two against UMass-Dartmouth and Bridgewater State on Clark Field. Then the Lyons experienced a streak where they dropped the next seven games, including five one-goal losses and three overtime outings. Returning home for two straight league contests, Wheaton knocked off Smith College and then took eventual conference tournament finalist Wellesley College into the extra session before falling 2-1. The Lyons completed their regular season with road losses at Clark and NCAA Division III Championship runner-up Springfield College.

Performing on the offensive end for the blue and white was all-conference selection, Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/ Poly Prep), who led the team in scoring with six goals and a pair of assists for 14 points. Following close behind was a trio of attackers in juniors Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.) and Rebecca Pisano (Vinyard Haven, MA/Martha's Vineyard Regional H.S.) and captain Leah Ferullo (Boston, MA/The Winsor School), who paced the team in scoring last season. Collins and Pisano each contributed with four goals and three assists for 11 points, while Ferullo added three goals and a team-high four assists for 10 points.

Junior defensive back Andrea Pelkey (Palmyra, ME/Nokomis Regional H.S.), last year's most improved player, helped to prevent double-digit scoring with an impressive 10 defensive saves on the season. Stepping into a starting net position for all 16 games and having an immediate presence was freshman goalkeeper Gillian Lay (Brewster, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.), who held Wheaton's opponents scoreless for a stretch of 200 consecutive minutes. Ranked nationally with 144 total saves and a 0.862 save percentage, Lay played an integral role in keeping the Lyons in the majority of their contests.

WELLESLEY TOPS WHEATON IN OVERTIME, 2-1

October 17, 2000

The Wheaton College field hockey lost its fourth overtime game of the season, as the Lyons fell to Wellesley College, 2-1 in a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest at Clark Field.

In the loss, the Lyons fall to 1-5 in the conference and 3-11 overall. Wellesley, previously seeded third in the NEWMAC, improves to 9-4 and 5-2 in league competition.

Play was evenly matched in the first half, as both teams struggled to post a goal through the opening 35 minutes. Wheaton was able to rally four offensive penalty corners to Wellesley's five, but the teams were even in shots on goal with two apiece.

Wellesley seized the game's first goal with 12:25 remaining on the clock. Freshman Rakhee Patel (Elyria, OH/Lake Ridge Academy) took the ball off the opposing goalie's pads and into the back of the net.

However, the Lyons would respond on a cross by Lauren Proshan (Blandford, MA/The MacDuffie School) over to teammate Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/Poly Prep CDS), who slammed it in the back of the cage.

With the score tied at the end of regulation play, Wheaton won the coin toss and opted for possession of the ball. However, Wellesley quickly gained control of the game, firing a total of nine shots in the extra session.

Lyon goalkeeper Gillian Lay (North Eastham, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.) continued to shine in the cage, as she stopped 15 shots, eight in the overtime including an aerial stick save. Wellesley was able to sneak in the game-winner on a penalty corner, as Betsy Masiello (Saratoga, CA/Saratoga H.S.) took a shot from the top of the circle in posting the overtime victory.

The Wheaton women will continue NEWMAC play on Thursday, October 19, as they travel to Clark University for a 4:00 p.m. start.

WHEATON EARNS FIRST CONFERENCE WIN AGAINST SMITH, 4-2

October 14, 2000

The Wheaton College field hockey team won its first conference game of the season today, as the Lyons defeated the Smith College Pioneers, 4-2 in a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest on Saturday afternoon at Clark Field.

Wheaton raised its mark to 3-10 overall and 1-4 in the conference, while Smith drops to 4-11-1 and 3-4 in the NEWMAC.

The Lyons set the pace early on offensively, scoring three of their four goals within a ten-minute span midway through the opening period. The first goal came at the 16:57 minute mark from junior Rebecca Pisano (Vineyard Haven, MA/Martha's Vineyard Regional). Pisano would go on to score two more in the contest to complete the first hat-trick of the season for a Wheaton player.

Also collecting a goal in the first half was sophomore attack Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/Poly Prep CDS) with 9:36 to play, thanks to feeds from senior Anna Watkins (Shaker Heights, OH/Hathaway Brown School) and sophomore Lauren Proshan (Blandford, MA/The MacDuffie School).

With a 3-0 cushion, the second half followed suit for the Lyons, as Pisano completed her hat-trick with nearly 33 minutes remaining. Smith managed to halve the Wheaton lead with a pair of goals within 36 seconds of one another in the 22nd minute, but would not score again as the Lyons defense held their ground. Both Pioneer goals were scored by junior Kaitlin Bonenberger (Hamden, CT/Taft H.S.).

Wheaton will host conference rival Wellesley College on Tuesday, October 17 in its final home game of the regular season. Game time is slated for 4:00 p.m.

BABSON BLANKS WHEATON, 2-0 IN CONFERENCE FIELD HOCKEY ACTION

October 3, 2000

Wheaton gave up two goals, including one in each half, and fell to Babson College in New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) field hockey action Tuesday afternoon at Clark Field.

In suffering their third consecutive loss of the season, the Lyons drop to 2-6 overall and 0-2 in league play, while the Beavers, experiencing their third shutout of the year, return to .500 play at 5-5 and 1-2 in the conference.

Babson's offense tested Wheaton early, as they held a 10-2 shot advantage through the first 35 minutes. With 21:59 remaining, the Beavers offensive attack prevailed as sophomore Sarah Lange (Northbridge, MA/Northbridge H.S.) was left virtually uncovered in front of Lyon goalie Gillian Lay (North Eastham, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.). Given the opportunity to place her shot, Lange wasted no time in delivering her fourth goal of the season to the right corner of the net.

In the second half, the Lyons came out inspired on offense, this time holding a slight shot advantage over the visiting Beavers. But the blue and white were unable to convert on their scoring opportunities. Babson would eventually put the game out of reach midway through the period, as freshman Torry Cullen (St. Louis, MO/Laudue Morton Watkins H.S.) received a nice feed from senior midfielder Eliza Hill (North Conway, NH/North Conway H.S.) as she slipped her shot through defensive pressure and into the back of the net.

Babson goalkeepers' Beth Armando (S. Dartmouth, MA/Dartmouth H.S.) and Colleen Kelley (Limerick, PA/The Hill School) split time in net, earning the shutout while combining for seven saves. The Beavers outshot the Lyons, 14-8 in the contest.

On Thursday, Wheaton will step out of the conference and face Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn., beginning at 4:00 p.m. Wesleyan is a member of the New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC).

WHEATON FALLS TO TUFTS UNIVERSITY, 1-0 IN NON-CONFERENCE FIELD HOCKEY ACTION

September 28, 2000

The Wheaton College field hockey team played host to Tufts University on Thursday afternoon, but was unable to find an equalizer in a 1-0 defeat to the Jumbos at Clark Field.

Wheaton falls to 2-5 on the season, while Tufts, winners of its second game in as many years versus the Lyons, advance to 4-2 overall.

The first half played out at even strength, as neither team capitalized on missed scoring opportunities.

The Jumbos jumped out to an early 1-0 lead in the second half with 33:47 remaining. Senior captain Amy Polverini (Longmeadow, MA/Longmeadow H.S.) placed the ball in the right corner of the net for the game-winning goal. The Lyons fought back, forcing eight offensive penalty corners, but were unable to put a point on the board.

Goalkeeper Gillian Lay (North Eastham, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.), who held the Jumbos scoreless in the opening half, has not given up a goal in 200 minutes for Wheaton. In the past two games, she has accounted for 22 saves.

Wheaton will resume conference play on Tuesday, October 3 at 4:00 p.m. The Lyons host Babson College for their second New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest this season.

LYONS TOP BRIDGEWATER STATE, 3-1 IN NON-CONFERENCE FIELD HOCKEY ACTION

September 21, 2000

The Wheaton College women's field hockey team won its second consecutive game today, as the Lyons defeated Bridgewater State College, 3-1 in a non-conference match-up at Clark Field.

The Lyons, members of the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC), advance to 2-3 on the season. With the loss, the Bears fall to 1-4.

Wheaton controlled the first half of play on offense, allowing a mere two Bridgewater State penalty corners. On the offensive end, Lyons' Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.) put the ball in the back left corner of the net to give Wheaton the 1-0 advantage.

The Lyons followed suit in the second half with what would be the game-winning goal by senior Anna Watkins (Shaker Heights, OH/Hathaway Brown School). However, Bridgewater State was able to answer with a goal of its own. Angela Labonte (Palmer, MA/Palmer H.S.) posted a goal with 19:22 remaining in the second period.

The home team was able to seal the victory with an insurance goal late in the second period. Sophomore Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn NY/Poly Prep CDS) accounted for her third goal in two games, as she scored with 3:55 remaining in the contest.

Wheaton will travel to Mount Holyoke College for its first NEWMAC contest of the season on Saturday, September 23. Game time is set for 1:00 p.m.

WHEATON FIELD HOCKEY TEAM WINS FIRST GAME IN BEGLEY ERA; SHUTS OUT UMASS-DARTMOUTH, 4-0

September 12, 2000

The Wheaton College women's field hockey team captured its first win of the season today at Clark Field, topping the University of Massachusetts at Dartmouth, 4-0.

Lyon goalkeepers Gillian Lay (N. Eastham, MA/ Nauset Regional H.S.) and Amy Haller (Hudson, OH/Western Reserve Academy) combined for the teams' first shutout of the season.

In the first half, the teams were evenly matched, as neither squad was able to bring the ball into scoring position. Play was constant in the midfield, allowing only a total of five penalty corners for both teams.

However during the second period, the Wheaton women were firing on all cylinders, as sophomore Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/Poly Prep CDS) led the Lyons' offense with two goals. Her first goal was on a stroke after the ball was covered by the UMass-Dartmouth goalie. The next strike came at the 18:34 minute mark on a Wheaton corner.

Teammates Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.) and Rebecca Pisano (Oak Bluff, MA/Martha's Vineyard Regional) each added a goal of their own to seal the victory for the Lyons.

Wheaton will host Bridgewater State College on Thursday, September 21 at 4:00 p.m. In the team's last meeting, Bridgewater prevailed with a 3-2 victory over the Lyons.

WHEATON FIELD HOCKEY FALLS TO GORDON, 2-0 IN HOME OPENER

September 1, 2000

The Wheaton College women's field hockey team lost its first regular season game to Gordon College 2-0 at Clark Field. The Lyons, a member of the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC), fell to 0-1 on the season under the direction of new head coach Rebecca Begley.

Gordon's Fighting Scots jumped out to an early 1-0 lead with a goal from Tennyson Mentus (Magnolia, MA). Gordon maintained possession throughout the first half only allowing the Lyons two shots on goal.

In the second half, Wheaton possessed more intensity on offense but was unable to capitalize on its attack. Sophomore goalkeeper Amy Haller (Hudson, OH/Western Reserve) stopped 11 shots for the Lyons.

With 2:30 to play, the Fighting Scots were able to get through the Wheaton defense. Gordon's Naomi Chapman (Gardiner, ME) put one in the back of the net to seal the victory.

Wheaton will travel for its next two games to the University of Southern Maine and Bowdoin College on Saturday, September 9th and Sunday, September 10th. Game times are slated for 2:00 p.m. on Saturday and 1:00 p.m. on Sunday.

2000 FIELD HOCKEY PREVIEW

August 15, 2000

Change is in the air as the Wheaton Lyon field hockey program enters the 2000 fall season. The Lyons begin their first season under the direction of new head coach, Rebecca Begley.

Begley, who brings successful records as head coach at Kenyon College and assistant field hockey and women's lacrosse coach at Denison University, will lead Wheaton in a 16-game regular season schedule that features matchups with 1999 NCAA final four participant Springfield College and conference foes WPI, Mount Holyoke, Babson and Wellesley.

After going 4-15 with an eighth place finish in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) last year-including 10 losses by a single goal-Begley will look to revamp the program while staying positive and challenging her athletes to play hard.

"We're going to do whatever it takes to get this team over the hump," comments Begley. "I want each one of my players to reach their potential, and being physically fit is the first step. You need to be able to outrun your opponents in order to outplay them."

With 18 returning players, seven new recruits and a full-time assistant coach in Phoebe duPont, Begley is optimistic about her team's chances. "This is a well-seasoned team with some veteran leadership, and I will look for our captains to play an integral role in turning this team around," says Begley. "I want our players to get a taste of success."

That campaign will begin with captains Leah Ferullo (Boston, MA/The Winsor School), a senior attacker who led the team in scoring last season with five goals and four assists, and junior defensive back Andrea Pelkey (Palmyra, ME/Nokomis Regional H.S.), who was named most improved player last year. Ferullo was named to the All-NEWMAC team with former senior sweeper Kim Sears (Greenfield, MA/Stoneleigh-Burnham H.S.). Sears was selected to the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division III Regional All-American team.

Other top returnees for the Lyons is sophomore Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/ Poly Prep), who will provide speed on the front line, and junior attackers Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.), the team's third leading scorer with two goals and three assists, and Rebecca Pisano (Vinyard Haven, MA). Sophomore backs Stephanie Allen (Holden, MA/Notre Dame Academy) and Melanie Kilsey (Lincoln, RI/Lincoln H.S.) also showed signs of improvements last season.

Looking to make an immediate impact on the Wheaton squad is freshman standout Gillian Laye (Brewster, MA/Nauset Regional H.S.), who will likely compete for the starting goalkeeper position, and first-year player Nicole Marchetto (Leeds, MA/Holyoke Catholic H.S.), an ace midfielder who was recruited by Division I schools.

One thing that is certain is the team's commitment to transform the Wheaton field hockey team into a consistently successful program. "We will be striving to teach our players that physical fitness and talent are strong signs of teamwork," adds Begley. "Individual player skills and the development of talent, both offensive and defensive, will be taught. If every one of our players improves individually over the course of this year and years to come, our team will be that much better."
