1999-2000 SEASON SUMMARY

In many typical scenarios for a team that returns 15 of 22 players, the ideal situation is to gain a year experience playing with one another, to develop a better understanding of the game, coupled with making necessary improvements from the previous season. But in other instances like the one at hand, the Wheaton College field hockey team endured several growing pains for the second straight year, as the Lyons spent the season with 16 of their 21-player active roster competing in only their first or second year of play. With 12 returning athletes, including six starters, and seven new recruits, the team's expectations were to improve upon the previous years seven win season.

Unfortunately, the team struggled to maintain any type of advantage that they held, as the Lyons lost 10 of their 15 games by a single goal, including a record-setting five overtime contests. Eight of their losses came at a time where they were either tied or leading their opponents at the half. Wheaton ended the year with a 4-15 standing and a 3-7 league mark for an eighth place finish in the competitive New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). "Obviously with a 4-15 record, the team has a lot of work to be done in the off-season and with recruiting efforts," stated third year head coach Betty Ann Giles.

"We were unable to meet our goal of the season for at least a .500 record and a fourth or fifth place finish in regular season conference play," added Giles. The greatest accomplishment this season was the team's ability to "bounce back" from crushing defeats and begin each game with a positive outlook. The greatest difficulty was with our ability to score; the factors for this low offensive productivity were many, but the bottom line was not enough depth and/or skilled players in critical positions."

After defeating Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) 1-0 for the second time of the year in the NEWMAC Tournament, the Lyons advanced to the quarterfinal round where they would lose to eventual conference champion and NCAA final four participant Springfield College on their AstroTurf field. Wheaton, who plays its home games on natural grass, nearly defeated the powerful Springfield Pride at home just five days prior in the first loss to them, as the Lyons were ahead 1-0 at the half. Springfield proved to be too much as they evened the game in regulation and won in double overtime, 2-1. Contributing to the team's play on a consistent basis this season was senior sweeper Kim Sears (Greenfield, MA/Stoneleigh-Burnham H.S.) and junior attacker Leah Ferullo (Boston, MA/The Winsor School).

Sears, a tri-captain who anchored the Lyons defense and was often used as a forward in the offensive attack, earned the National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division III Regional All-American Team honor for New England and was selected to the NEWMAC All-Conference Team. She was second on the team in scoring with five goals and two assists for a total of 12 points, including the game-winning goal in a 3-2 overtime win over MIT. For her career, Sears tallied 16 goals and 9 assists for a combined total of 41 points in 56 games played.

Ferullo, a quick forward with an attacking style of play, was the team's leading scorer with five goals and a team-best four assists for 14 total points.

With 18 of the 21 players returning for Wheaton, excluding tri-captains Sears, Melinda Glew (N. Kingstown, RI/N. Kingstown H.S.) and Meredith Ruck (Guilford, CT/Guilford H.S.), the Lyons will look for continued progress from their underclassmen. Freshman Katherine Sciolto (Brooklyn, NY/ Poly Prep), a provider of much speed on the front line, complements sophomore attackers Cara Collins (Walpole, MA/Walpole H.S.) and Rebecca Pisano (Vinyard Haven, MA). Wheaton sophomore defensive back Andrea Pelkey (Palmyra, ME/Nokomis Regional H.S.), and freshmen backs Stephanie Allen (Holden, MA/Notre Dame Academy) and Melanie Kilsey (Lincoln, RI/Lincoln H.S.)

also showed signs of improvements over the course of the year.

Giles remains optimistic about the future, "With the return of next year's captains, Ferullo and most improved player Pelkey, and Sciolto, Allen, and Kilsey, the team will have a strong nucleus from which to build."

"The goal is to establish early contact with juniors or younger as well as to convince undecided seniors that they can make a difference at Wheaton," reiterated Giles. We are actively recruiting top-caliber players from as far away as Oklahoma City. I traveled to the United States Sports Festival in West Palm (Florida) where 135 high school teams participated in a three-day tournament over the Thanksgiving weekend. I met with more than a dozen seniors, several of whom have already been on campus and know about Wheaton."

WHEATON HOLDS BACK MIT, DEFEAT ENGINEERS IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

October 12, 1999

Senior Kim Sears (Greenfield, MA/ Stoneleigh-Burnham) scored the game-winning goal for the Wheaton Lyons field hockey team one minute in to the second overtime period as they defeated their conference rivals MIT 3-2. The Lyons improved their record to 3-11 overall, including 2-3 in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). In the second half of play, Kim Sears added her first goal early on to give the Lyons the 2-1 lead. However, Engineers' Jennifer Stout (Bloomington, NY) brought the game into overtime with her unassisted goal. Although play was evenly matched, the Lyons were able to utilize their substitutions which enabled them to control the tempo late in the game.

Wheaton's next contest will be Saturday, October 16, at Smith College beginning at 1:00 p.m. The result of this conference game will help determine the standings for the NEWMAC Tournament.
