LATE SURGE POWERS MIT PAST WHEATON, 12-6 IN MEN'S LACROSSE PILGRIM LEAGUE CONTEST

April 25, 2000

The Wheaton College men's lacrosse team lost its fourth Pilgrim League game against MIT, 12-6 on Tuesday afternoon behind a pair of hat tricks from Engineer attackmen Matt Van Horne (Liverpool, NY/Liverpool) and Pascal Rainey (Watertown, MA/Watertown). With the win, MIT moves to 7-3 overall and 4-1 in the division.

The contest was a back-and-forth battle through the first three and a half quarters, until the Engineers broke it open in the final five minutes of play. After beginning the game with the first two goals, MIT surrendered three scores in the second quarter to give the Lyons the one-goal lead at halftime.

In the second half, the Engineers again opened the scoring with two consecutive goals for the one-goal edge, but Wheaton bounced back to even the game at four goals apiece midway through the third quarter. MIT countered the home team attack, tallying three of the contest's next four scores to take a 7-5 lead into the final frame. Wheaton would score an additional goal, cutting the deficit to two with five minutes remaining, but MIT was too strong down the stretch, scoring four unanswered goals to put the game away.

The Lyons were led in scoring by midfielders Tommy McKnight (Acton, MA/Acton-Boxboro H.S.), who had two goals and an assist, and Adam Graber (Needham, MA/Needham H.S.), who also had a pair of goals.

MIT received scoring help from Eli Weinberg (Needham, MA/Needham H.S.) with two goals and two assists, while Rainey tallied two assists in addition to his three goals.

Wheaton will finish its regular season home play on Thursday, April 27, as the Lyons face non-conference opponent Colby College at 3:30 p.m. Wheaton's remaining two contests will be on the road against Pilgrim League foe Massachusetts Maritime on Saturday, April 29 at 1:00 p.m. and at Bates on Tuesday, May 2 at 4:00 p.m. in a non-league game.

DOWLING'S SEVEN GOALS POWERS SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE OVER WHEATON COLLEGE, 15-5 IN MEN'S LACROSSE

April 22, 2000

Wheaton College lost a Pilgrim League game against Springfield College on a rain soaked Elms field Saturday. The Pride were led by Sean Dowling (Framingdale, NY/Framingdale) who scored seven goals to bury Wheaton. With the loss the Lyons dropped to 3-8 overall and 1-3 in the division. Springfield is now 8-5 and a perfect 6-0 in Pilgrim League play.

Springfield jumped out to an early 5-1 lead in the first period, while the Lyons could only manage one goal in that quarter by Padgett Berthiaume (Spencer, MA/Bancroft). Springfield opened its lead to 11-3, scoring six in that period to put Wheaton into a hole. The second half was a defensive battle in the mud, and neither team could score many goals. The Lyons couldn't muster a comeback in the fourth period and took the loss.

The Lyons were led in scoring by freshman midfielder David Trail (Lincoln, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury who had two second period goals and freshman Tyler Hallam (South Burlington, VT/S.B.H.S.) with two second half goals.

In addition to Dowling's seven goals Matt Cersosimo (W. Hartford, CT/Concord) had a hat trick and midfielder Jim Warnock (Somers, CT/Somers) had two goals. Springfield was able to get off 42 shots in the game compared to just 22 by the Lyons.

Wheaton will stay at home on Tuesday, April 25 to host MIT at 4:00pm.

WHEATON FALLS TO WESTERN NEW ENGLAND COLLEGE IN MEN'S LACROSSE, 15-5

April 8, 2000

The Wheaton College men's lacrosse team dropped a conference game to Pilgrim League rival Western New England College (WNEC) today, 15-5 at Elms Field. Sophomore attackman Ryan Dean (Wilbraham, MA) tallied three goals and two assists to lead the Golden Bears in the league win.

The game started out a nip-and-tuck affair, with both teams having opportunities for the first eight minutes. WNEC jumped out to a 5-1 advantage at the conclusion of the first quarter and never looked back, as the Golden Bears posted a 7-1 lead at the half. WNEC was led by Dean, who had a hat-trick and two assists. Sophomore Bill Locher (Yorktown, NY) added a hat-trick for WNEC, while four other players recorded two goals apiece for the Golden Bears.

The Lyons were led in scoring by freshman midfielder J.J. Velez (New York, NY/South Kent) with two goals, while three other players had one each. Senior goalie Chris Kelly (Waltham, MA/Rivers School) had 25 saves in the loss.

Wheaton will travel to Boston, MA on Tuesday, April 11, as the Lyons play the University of Massachusetts-Boston Beacons, starting at 3:00 p.m.

WHEATON FALLS TO EASTERN CONNECTICUT IN MEN'S LACROSSE, 20-2

April 1, 2000

The Wheaton College men's lacrosse team dropped its third consecutive game today, losing to Eastern Connecticut State University 20-2 at Elms Field. Junior attackman Loic Williamson (Boxboro, MA/Acton-Boxboro) tallied five goals to lead the Warriors to the league win.

Eastern Conn came out of the gate strong, scoring three goals in the first five minutes, and never looking back, as the Warriors posted a 10-0 lead at the half and scored 17 overall before the Lyons got on the board. Sophomore Michael Grabski (Somers, CT/Somers) added a hat-trick for Eastern with four other players recording two goals for the Warriors.

The Warriors defense held Wheaton to only three shots on goals, while their offense had ten different players scoring on at least one occasion. Junior midfielder Jeff Reinhart (Londonderry, NH/Londonderry) ended the afternoon with two goals and two assists for Eastern.

The Lyons were led in scoring by junior attackman Padgett Berthiaume (Spencer, MA/Bancroft) and sophomore midfielder Loring Rowe (Newport, RI/Pomfret) with one goal apiece. Senior goalie Chris Kelly (Waltham, MA/Rivers School) had 23 saves in the loss.

Wheaton will travel to Newton, MA on Tuesday, April 4, as they play the Lasell College Lasers of the New Atlantic Conference (NAC), starting at 3:30 p.m.

ROGER WILLIAMS EDGES WHEATON, 8-7 IN MEN'S LACROSSE HOME OPENER

March 28, 2000

The Wheaton College men's lacrosse team fought back from a five goal second-half deficit to tie the game at seven goals apiece but fell short of Roger Williams University, 8-7 in the closing minutes on Tuesday afternoon. The Hawks improved their record to 3-2 overall with the win, while the Lyons dropped their third game of the year and fell to 1-3.

Wheaton's valiant comeback effort was denied as Roger Williams' David LeBlanc (South Hadley, PA/South Hadley) scored the game-winner with a little over two minutes left in the contest.

The Hawks tallied six unanswered goals after Wheaton recorded the first two scores of the game to build a 6-2 lead at the half. After Roger Williams struck first in the third quarter, the Lyon men rallied for five goals of their own, capped off by Tyler Hallam's (South Burlington, VT/S.B.H.S.) game-tying equalizer midway through the fourth quarter. That was all Wheaton could muster before LeBlanc drilled the game-winner.

The Lyons were led by Padgett Berthiaume (Spencer, MA/Bancroft) and captain Tommy McKnight (Acton, MA/Acton-Boxboro), as both players managed to combine for four goals in the loss.

LeBlanc and Peter Moran (Barrington, RI/Providence Country Day) paced the Hawks in scoring, scoring six of the Hawks' eight goals as each posted a hat-trick on the afternoon.

Wheaton will again play at home this Saturday, April 1, as they host Pilgrim League opponent Eastern Connecticut State University, starting at 1:00 p.m.

2000 WHEATON COLLEGE MEN'S LACROSSE PREVIEW

March 15, 2000

Three years into Wheaton's men's lacrosse program, head coach Brad Jorgensen now understands the problems that a wealth of talent brings: deciding whom to play when.

"The problems that I have will not be concerned with finding the talent," states a relieved Jorgensen, "but with deciding who will play at different stages of the game."

For the first time since Jorgensen's arrival at Wheaton, the words flying around the locker room this year are "depth", "team chemistry" and "work ethic". "Our team chemistry is one-thousand times better," Jorgensen says. "It's a different group of guys this year; they come to practice with peer pressure to succeed and they work hard. We have a good problem here in the fact that we now have fifteen talented and dedicated players instead of nine good players."

As skillful as these guys are, they also bring another dimension to this year's squad: the expectation to overachieve. The Lyons, after coming off a disappointing season where they finished 6-7 overall and placed fourth in the Pilgrim League Southeast Division, are seeking the opportunity to reach post-season play. For them, this means qualifying for the four-team Pilgrim League Tournament as well as reaching the NCAA Tournament.

The Pilgrim League, which consists of 15 teams in two divisions, takes the top two teams from each division and competes in a four-team single elimination tournament. In the southeast division, Wheaton competes against four New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) schools, in addition to Massachusetts Maritime Academy and Western New England College.

The Lyons, despite a very strong schedule against Springfield, Babson, Eastern Connecticut, Roger Williams and WNEC, are predicted by Face-Off Magazine to finish in third place overall in the Pilgrim League preseason ranking. This ranking tends to appear even more legit when looking at the combination of Wheaton's top returning athletes, coupled with the strength and depth of this year's freshman class, the second class that Jorgensen has recruited.

Graduating three seniors last year, including the country's 18th leading assist-getter in Adam Wadel, the Lyons will look to junior attackman Padgett Berthiaume (Spencer, MA/Bancroft H.S.), who had seven points (four goals, three assists) in only five appearances last season, to help fill the void. Midfielders Adam Graber (Needham, MA/Needham H.S.) and Loring Rowe (Newport, RI/Pomfret H.S.) will also be depended on heavily from an offensive standpoint, as the two of them combined for 36 tallies on net and 12 assists, for a total of 48 points. Senior goalie Chris Kelly (Waltham, MA/Rivers School), who started in all thirteen outings with a 11.92 goals against average, will once again anchor Wheaton's defense from the net position.

With only seven players graduating in the next two years, Wheaton's 11 newcomers will be expected to perform immediately as most will see a considerable amount of playing time throughout their four-year careers. "Expectations are sky-high for these freshman," comments Jorgensen, who has recorded a 13-14 mark in his first two years in Norton. "There's not a kid in that class that shouldn't be able to come in and make an immediate impact for us."

"The future is now," adds Jorgensen. "There's a huge opportunity for us to go to the post-season this year. We have to go out and perform and seize that opportunity."
